Senior sailor VYBORNOV has been serving as motor mechanic on the torpedo motorboat №104. Before the combat seagoing tours, he always thoroughly checks the machinery, so that no engine stalling would happen during combat mission caused by his fault.

In a torpedo attack on an enemy naval ferry barge (Marinefährprahm), VYBORNOV provided for reliable functioning of the left engine, and thus ensured good manoeuvrability of the motorboat. Afrer the enemy naval ferry barge was sank, VYBORNOV assumed the nose machine-gun position and delivered fire surpassing enemy firing positions. VYBORNOV kept hammering the enemy gunners until their fire seized. In this naval engagement, VYBORNOV exhibited exceptional ability to combine his main duties with delivering fire at the enemy surpassing his positions.

For exhibited courage and bravery in the combat against the Motherland enemies, VYBORNOV has been bestowed three times: order "Red Star", medal "For Bravery", medal "For Combat Merits".
