I. Concise, concrete description of personal feat of arms or merits

During the stay in England, he displayed great persistence and energy in supporting the ship's repair with all necessary materials. Repair work continued at night; the men were always served hot breakfasts and coffee. Thanks to his initiative, the ship is stocked with all necessary materials for further combat action. During the voyage, he excellently organized the provision of hot food to soldiers at their combat posts. The men are warmly and comfortably clothed. Comrade Sizonenko has carried out the government's mission excellently.

He deserves the award the Order of the Patriotic War 2nd Class.
