In the offensive operation since 12.01.1945, comrade YATSUN was performing the duties of the divisional headquarters commandant. He always promptly provided quarters to the headquarters sections and established the security around them, which provided for proper and efficient headquarters functioning.

In the night on 20 January 1945, while seeking proper quarters in one of the settlements, he encountered 3 German officers hiding in a house. Risking his life, he disarmed them and delivered to the headquarters. These prisoners provided valuable intelligence.

For efficient organisation and location of the quarters to the divisional headquarters sections, for providing tight security, for capturing 3 German officers, he deserves state award - order "RED STAR".
