I. Brief and specific description of the personal feat or merits

He has been serving in the division since the day of its formation, i.e. January 1942. He participated in all the combat engagements conducted by the division. The regiment was bestowed with order "Red Banner" for its latest successful combat engagements for forced crossing of the Oder river and defeat of the enemy on the western bank. For these achievements, the regiment troops received gratitudes from the Commander in Chief comrade STALIN.

The regiment successes were largely founded in comrade KUZMIN's productive and well organised political work during the combat period.

The SovInformBureau information bulletins where promptly distributed among the troops, the heroes were promptly recommended for awards and their feats descriptions were popularised.

For his long participation in Patriotic war and his productive work in the struggle against the German Fascist invaders, he deserves state award order "RED BANNER".
