I. Brief and specific description of the personal feat or merits

On 16 January 1945, platoon commander of the 2nd mortar company Lieutenant CHISTIKIN exhibited personal courage, initiative, and commander's wit in the operation for force crossing of the Vistula river near the settlement Janówek, Warsaw voivodeship.

The platoon under Lt. CHISTIKIN's command skilfully selected the firing positions and provided fire support to the advancing rifle troops and eliminated up to 15 German troops, suppressed 3 enemy machine-guns. When one of the mortar layers was wounded and taken out of action, Lt. CHISTIKIN replaced him and continued firing at the enemy. Acting boldly and decisively, the mortar platoon supported the troops crossing the river and was part of their success. For exhibited courage, bravery, and skilful command, Lt. CHISTIKIN deserves state award order "PATRIOTIC WAR II CLASS".
