I. Brief and specific description of the personal feat or merits

In the combat struggle against the German invaders near the settlement Głowaczów on 14 January 1945, comrade BABANIN exhibited courage and bravery.

Acting as a signalling section commander, comrade BABANIN ensured and provided uninterrupted signalling capability between the battery commander and the firing positions. This ensured, that the battery commander could open suppressing fire in proper time and enable advance of our infantry with low casualties. Comrade BABANIN personally 6 times repaired signalling links under enemy artillery barrage. Being wounded, he remained on the battlefield and continued to execute his combat missions.

He deserves state award order "GLORY II CLASS".
