I. Brief and specific description of the personal feat or merits

01 March 1945, in the combat engagement for the house blocks 541-549 in town Breslau, Lt. BELOKON' exhibited personal courage and military skill leading his company. A superior enemy infantry force was fortified in the building cellars and defended stubbornly preventing our advance. After the onset of darkness, BELOKON' skilfully deployed the assault squads in their sectors. Then, having given the "Go" signal, he rushed into the building under the cover of machine-gun fire. The Germans began fleeing surprised by decisive push. Lt. BELOKON' organised a swift /follow up/ attack and prevented the Germans in establishing coordinated defence, thus seizing the house blocks 541-549 causing the enemy losses up to 40 troops. During this battle, Lt. BELOKON' was twice lightly wounded, but remained in command of his company rejecting medical evacuation until after the combat objective was achieved.

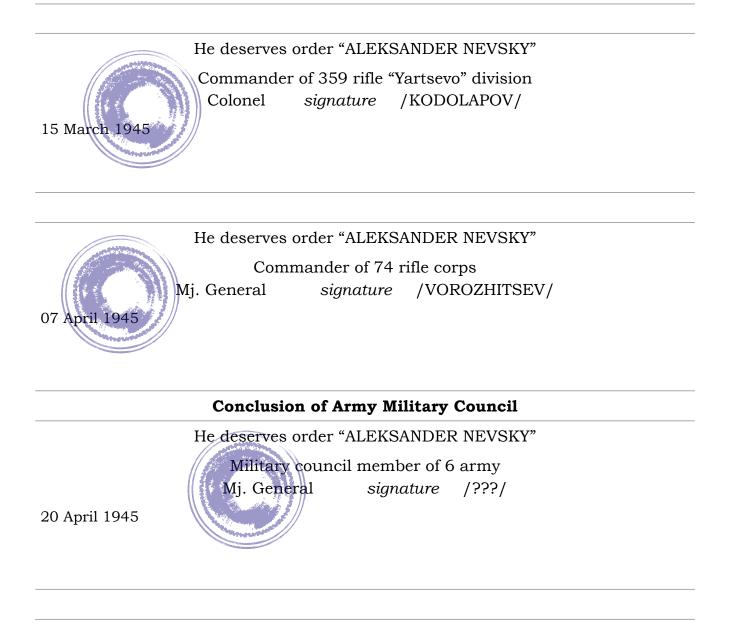

He deserves state award order "ALEKSANDER NEVSKY".
