

OPWII 155800 GOIDENKO

Guards Captain GOIDENKO Petr Ivanovich 1920.

Commander of 85mm anti-aircraft artillery battery, 31 separate Guards anti-aircraft artillery squadron of the Supreme Command Reserve.

CITATION:

He has been participating in combat against the German invaders since 25 October 1941. He proved himself as a brave and resourceful officer during these combat engagements.

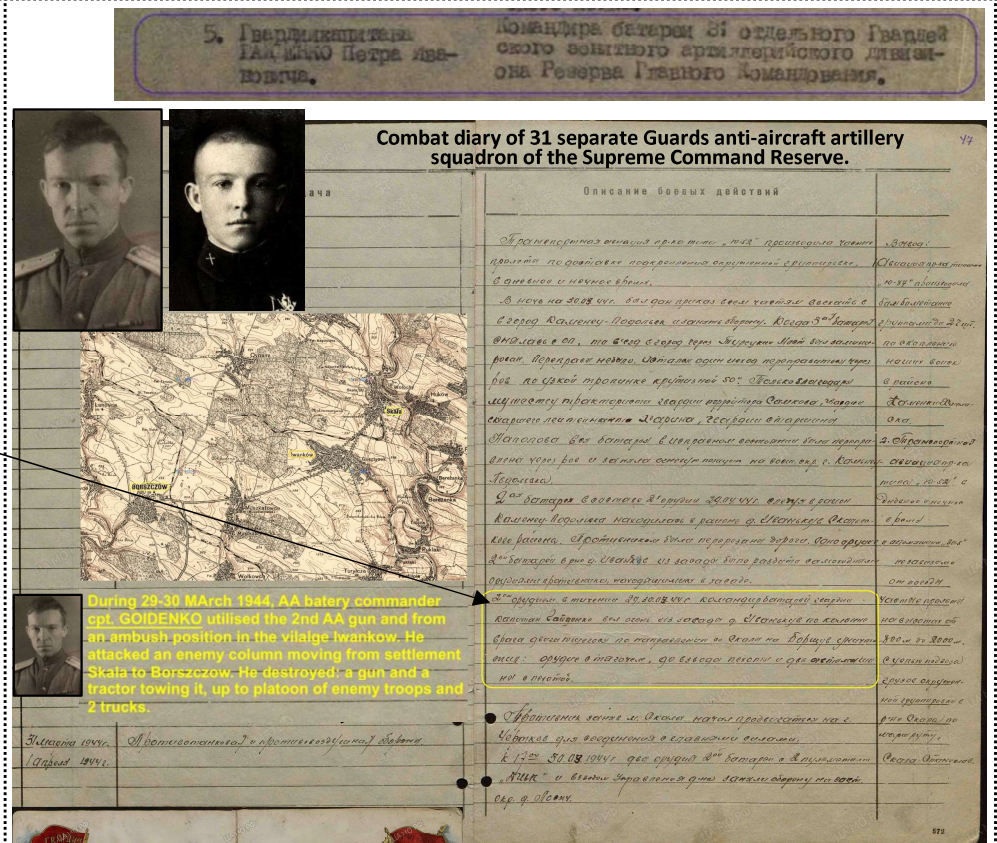

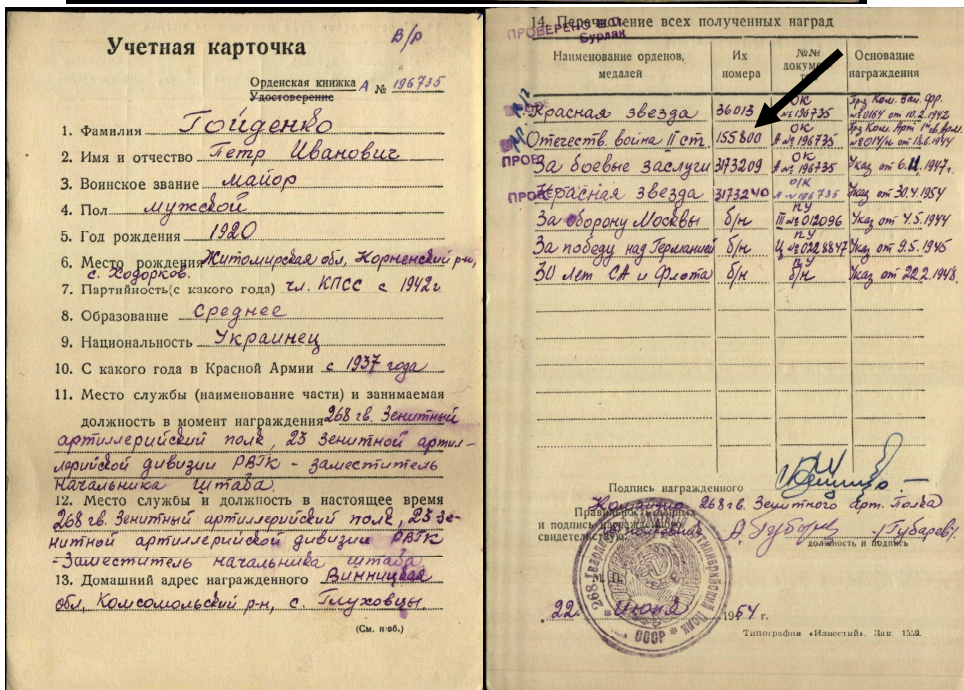

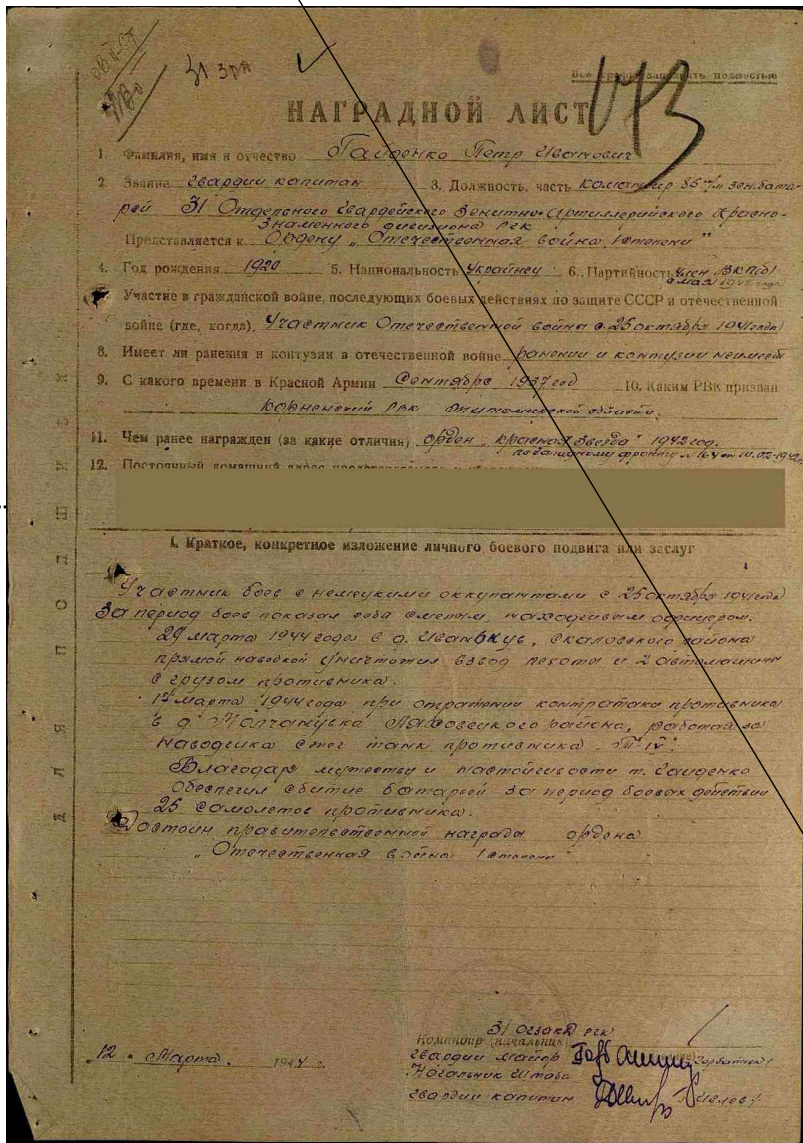

On 29 March 1944, firing directly with open sights, he eliminated up to platoon of enemy troops and 2 loaded trucks near the village Iwankow, Skala district (L'vov region).

On 17 March 1944, defending against an enemy counter-attack near the village Molezanowka, Lyakhovetksy district, he stood himself at the gun as a gun layer and burned an enemy "T-IV" tank.

Thanks to his bravery and steadfastness, comrade GOLDENKO enabled his battery to shoot down 25 enemy aircrafts. He deserves order “PATRIOTIC WAR II CLASS”.

Signed by the commander of 31 separate Guards anti-aircraft artillery squadron of the Supreme Command Reserve.

Guards Major GORBATYUK, 12 March 1944

Lt. GOIDENKO Petr Ivanovich, the commander of 196 AA squadron, 82 RD . MIA in December 1941.

Revoked.

