I. Brief and specific description of the personal feat or merits

In the battles during 10-24 March 1945, for the expansion of the bridgehead on the western bank of the Oder River and also during assault on German fortified stronghold in the town Klessin, comrade SMIRNOV exhibited examples of courage and bravery.

Following directly with the combat tank crews, he constantly monitored the condition of the battalion's personnel. In cases where soldiers or officers were wounded, comrade SMIRNOV provided first aid. He personally organised evacuation of the wounded officers of his battalion from the battlefield: 3 officers and 6 enlisted men. And also wounded from the supported units: 4 officers and 14 enlisted men, whom he rendered first aid and arranged evacuation to the rear for treatment.

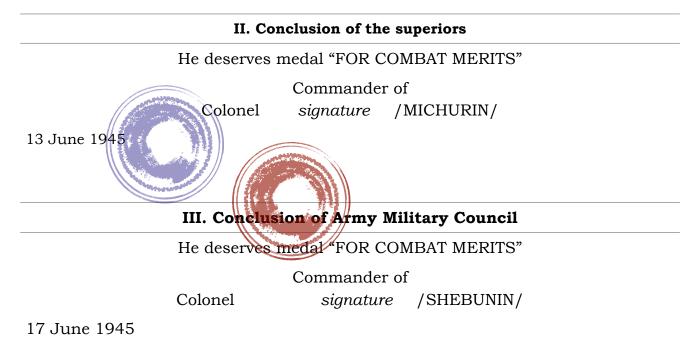

Repeatedly, acting under enemy fire, he pulled wounded soldiers from tanks hit by enemy and gave them medical aid.

For his courage and bravery, he deserves state award order "PATRIOTIC WAR I CLASS".
